WHY WE'RE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game (La Salle played intercollegiate football from 1931-41) on campus sometime during the '30s. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America.

In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

LASALLE BASKETBALL

1998-99 Preview

LaSalle 1998-99 Preview

Entering the 1998-99 basketball season, the La Salle University Explorers are looking for their fortunes to turn around. After five consecutive losing seasons, the Explorers have plenty of reasons to be optimistic.

La Salle will be playing on campus for the first time since the mid-1950's. After being nomads, the Explorers practiced in 12 gyms last year, they look forward to practicing in their game arena on a regular basis. Not only does La Salle have a newly refurbished arena going for them, but they also have a trio of the top players in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Junior guard Donnie Carr, the Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year his freshman year, and the second leading scorer in the conference last year, looks to round his game as the team grows and matures. He has already surpassed the 1,000-point plateau, and has showed that he can play point guard when needed. He scored his 1,000th point, against George Washington, in his 47th game with the Explorers. This tied him, with Lionel Simmons, for the second fastest player to reach 1,000 points in school history, behind Kareem Townes, who accomplished the feat in 44 games.

Carr, who currently ranks 31st on the school's all-time scoring list, showed he could play point guard last season. When the season opened with starting point guard Shawn Smith missing the first six games, Carr ran the point. At one time, he was leading the conference in both scoring and assists.

K'Zell Wesson was one of 19 players nationally to average double figures in rebounds and points.

Carr had a new favorite target down low, in the person of K'Zell Wesson. A transfer from the College of Eastern Utah, Wesson established himself as a force to be reckon with on the low block. He recorded double-doubles, in points and rebounds, in five of the Explorers' first six games. He was one of 19 players nationally to average a double-double for the season, finishing with a 13.2 point per game average and a 10.7 rebound per game average. For the season, Wesson had 15 double-doubles. He set a career-high in points (23) vs. St. Joseph's and in rebounds vs. Mount St. Mary's (17).

The third member of the trio was an exciting rookie from St. John Neumann high school. Victor Thomas showed flashes of brilliance from the inside and the outside. He was among the conference leaders in three-point shooting percentage (39.8) and was quick and agile enough to pull in 126 rebounds. He had a career game against Miami (OH) in the Carrier Classic in early December, when he posted career-highs in both points (19) and rebounds (12).

The other returning players for the Explorers are James Jordan, Garrett Bragg, and Bobby Collins.

Jordan, a hard worker from Liberia, is happy to be playing basketball in America. He was caught in a civil war in his homeland, but was brought to the United States by a businessman who thought he could have a nice career playing basketball in America. He scored a season-high five points against Penn in February and pulled down a career-best nine rebounds at Niagara.

Bragg scored in double-digits four times last season, with the Explorers winning all four of those games. His best performances were against Villanova and Rhode Island. Against Villanova, he dropped in 14 points, grabbed six rebounds, and blocked two shots. In a loss to nationally-ranked Rhode Island, he scored eight points and pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds. Coach Speedy Morris is looking for Bragg to use his wide body more effectively in the low-post this year.

Collins transferred in at mid-semester and played in two games. Admittedly out of shape, Collins worked very hard over the summer and the coaches see him a being an impact player this season.

The Explorers have four freshmen joining the team this year. Julian Blanks, Deon Jones, Jermaine Peebles, and Anwar Wilson each enter with impressive credentials. Blanks, an all-state player from Erie, will take control of the point guard position and feed the ball to the Explorers big scorers. Jones, who did not play last season, scored 23 points and dished nine assists per game in his final season at Campus Magnet in Queens, NY. Peebles, who was rated among the top 20 seniors entering his senior campaign, struggled through injuries, but was still able to average 13.5 points and 9.1 rebounds in his final season at Dudley High School in Greensboro, NC. Wilson, a redshirt last season, was named to the second team All-Bronx squad for averaging 13.7 points and 9.8 rebounds a game, in his senior season at John F. Kennedy high school.

1997-98: A Closer Look

La Salle took part in some exciting and down to the wire games again last season. They had a big win on national television and opened its new arena with a win also.

Jan. 2 - at the CoreStates Spectrum - The Explorers broke a 14 game losing streak against Philadelphia Big 5 opponents by beating Villanova 72-65. La Salle had five players with double-digit scoring performances. Donnie Carr had game-highs of 16 points and seven assists and Garrett Bragg and K'Zell Wesson each added 14 points in the win. In overcoming an early 12-2 deficit, the Explorers shot an even 50% for the game, including 54.5% in the second half.

Mike Gizzi tossed in 18 points at Virginia Tech to help secure coach Speedy Morris' 200th career win.

Jan. 27 - at Cassell Coliseum - La Salle is playing on national television and coach Speedy Morris is going for his 200th victory as La Salle's head coach. With the teams fighting a blizzard to get to the gym, the Explorers came to fight. K'Zell Wesson buried a three-pointer with six minutes left in the first half to tie the score at 23-23. The rest of the game was much of the same as the teams traded leads four more times and tied it up seven other times. La Salle went ahead for good when Mike Gizzi made two free throws with just over two minutes remaining. After a Wesson layup put the Explorers up three, Wesson made sure the spread would hold as he blocked a shot and added a put-back to seal the win. Wesson had 17 points and 14 rebounds and Gizzi added 18 points and four assists.

Feb. 21 - at the Hayman Center - Playing a regular season game on campus for the first time since February 10, 1987, the Explorers opened their newly refurbished Hayman Center with a 74-64 win over Virginia Tech. With many former players, coaches, and athletic officials on hand, La Salle jumped out to a 24-9 lead less than eight minutes into the game. The Explorers lead grew to as much as 43-20 in the first half, before the Hokies started to comeback. Virginia Tech got as close as six points with one minute to play, but La Salle had the crowd and its new arena on its side. The Explorers did so on free throws by Victor Thomas, Donnie Carr, and Shawn Smith.

Home Sweet Home

After defeating Virginia Tech in the Hayman Center in February, plans started soon after to rededicate the gym after the legendary Tom Gola. Now, the Tom Gola Arena, seats 4,000 people and will be the practice facility and home court for both the men's and women's basketball team and the volleyball team. La Salle has not played on campus full-time since the mid-1950's. The team hopes the new arena and better settings will help the team reach the glory days again.

THE SCORING LEGACY OF NUMBER 22

The La Salle jersey #22 was retired after the 1989-90 season to recognize the achievements of Lionel Simmons, who played with the NBA's Sacramento Kings. Simmons, the Explorers' all-time leading scorer, finished his career with 3,217 points, which was also good for third place the NCAA all-time scoring list.

However, #22 could have been retired 25 years ago when Hubie Marshall scored 1,576 points wearing that famed number. In fact, #22 has been worn by some of the most prolific scorers in La Salle history, as the chart below indicates.

La Salle All-time Scoring List

No.	Player	Years	Pts.	Rank
22	Hubie Marshall	1964-67	1,576	8th
22	Kurt Kanaskie	1976-80	1,356	14th
22	Steve Black	1981-85	2,012	4th
22	Lionel Simmons	1986-90	3,217	1st

Total Points: 8,161

In scoring over 8,000 points in 15 seasons of competition, these men averaged 20 points per game wearing #22. In this case, it wasn't the shoes, it was the shirt. And a great deal of talent.

Coaching Staff

William "Speedy" Morris

Leading La Salle to more wins than any other coach, William "Speedy" Morris enters his 13th season in charge of the Explorers' men's basketball team.

Morris gained his 200th win with the men's program on January 27, 1998, in a 72-68 at Virginia Tech. He became the sixth Philadelphia Big Five coach to reach that mark.

The 16th coach at La Salle, Morris enters this season with a 202-153 (.569) record, but including his stint as La Salle women's coach (43-17) and high school boy's coach (388-96), his overall coaching mark is 633-267 (.703).

Hired at La Salle in 1984 as the first full-time women's coach, Morris recorded the highest winning percentage (.717) of La Salle women's coaches. After two seasons, he was named the Explorers' men's coach and became the first coach in NCAA Division I history to go from head coach of a women's program to the same position in a men's program.

Morris has guided La Salle into the NCAA Tournament four times (1992, 1990, 1989, 1988) and twice into the NIT (1991, 1987), including a runner-up finish in 1986-87, his first season. In his first six seasons as men's coach, the Explorers qualified for a postseason berth. While the Explorers were members of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, the team won the tournament title four times and was co-champions in the regular season another time.

Over the years, Morris has received many honors. Twice he won or shared the MAAC Coach of the Year award. He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year three times by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith Sports Lodge. In September, 1995, Morris was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

The 1990 NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15 was Morris' 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won 100 many games in their first four seasons - current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the '40s and early '50s, Everett Case, and Roy Williams of Kansas, who achieved the mark after Morris.

The 1989-90 campaign was a historical highlight for La Salle. In addition to posting the school's best-ever 30-2 record (29-1 during the regular-season), La Salle ran off 22 consecutive victories, a school record, going from Jan. 6 through a 79-75 loss to Clemson in the NCAA Tournament on March 17 without a loss.

In 1991-92, Morris led La Salle to its sixth straight post-season appearance and its fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) and NCAA appearance in five years. The Explorers' exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC final and their heart-breaking, two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament were two of the college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

HOW MORRIS BECAME SPEEDY

There may be different theories as to how "Speedy" Morris acquired his nickname, but here is the answer, directly from the source.

"I was in seventh grade and on the grammar school team at St. John's in Manayunk. We had a little gym that also served as a cafeteria. Before we could practice, we'd have to move the tables away.

"It didn't take me long to figure out that if I came a little late for practice, I wouldn't have to help move the tables. Pretty soon, Gerry Boyle, our coach, caught on and made me do 100 laps around the gym, which isn't as bad as it sounds, since that gym would make Roman Catholic's gym (where he used to coach) look like the Palestra.

"Anyhow, along about the 25th lap, I started to go slowly, which wasn't too far from the speed I had been going. Anyhow, Gerry started yelling, 'C'mon, Speedy, let's get going' and that name has stuck ever since."

Which, when you think about it, is ironic, because the coach that Speedy, who wasn't so speedy, succeeded at La Salle, Lefty Ervin, wasn't lefthanded, either.

Coaching Staff

Tyrone Pitts

Tyrone Pitts, a former University of Pennsylvania standout, is in his second year as an assistant coach with the Explorers.

Pitts, 32, was a four-year member of the Penn Quakers, scoring 1,301 points and ranking 10th on the school's all-time list. In his senior season, he led the team in scoring (17.4 per game) and rebounding (7.0) and was voted second team All-Ivy League.

Pitts starred at Overbrook Regional (NJ) High under Bill Lange, Sr., father of current Explorers' assistant coach, Bill, Jr., before matriculating to Penn's Wharton School of Finance from where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in economics in 1988.

He has coached in Australia as well as at several NBA camps, including the Philadelphia 76ers' and Don Casey Camps.

While acting as player-coach in Australia with the Rainbow Coast Raiders in 1988-89, he averaged 41.7 points per game and was the two-time Australia slam-dunk champion. His ensuing travels included playing in Hong Kong, Cyprus, Israel and Manila.

He competed in the Hong Kong Super Cup Tournament in 1993. In 1992-93, Pitts played in Nicosia, Cyprus, and led the country in scoring with 35.2 points per game and added 12.6 rebounds.

Prior to joining the La Salle staff, Pitts served four years as an assistant coach at Cornell University.

Tyrone and his wife, Lori, have three children - daughters Lauren (8) and Tylor (2) and son John (4).

While coaching at Bishop Eustace, Lange directed the Crusaders to a 20-6 record and the South Jersey Parochial B championship in 1995-96. The youngest coach ever to lead a team to the state championship game, he was a finalist for South Jersey Coach of the Year honors.

He earned a degree in communications/journalism from Rowan University in 1994, where he was a key reserve on the Profs' Division III 1993 Final Four team.

Lange has been active as a coach in the Sonny Hill League and has participated in numerous South Jersey camps and clinics. He was the founder and director of the New Jersey Showdown, a two-day select tournament for high school standouts.

He served one year as a graduate assistant basketball coach at Clarion University and for the past three years was an assistant varsity coach and junior varsity coach at Penn Charter under Bill Gallagher.

Phillips captained the Penn Charter school team in 1989-90.

Atlantic 10 Conference

The foundation of the Atlantic 10 Conference's ascension to national prominence is solidified with an unwavering dedication to providing a broad-based, competitive athletic environment without sacrificing the high ideals of scholarship and sportsmanship. The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure University, St. Joseph's University, Temple University, Virginia Tech, and Xavier University offer a rich blend of proud academic and athletic traditions to form an impressive athletic alliance.

"The Atlantic 10 continues to prosper through our members' firm commitment to their student-athletes and to the future of the Conference," says commissioner Linda Bruno, who has helped guide the Conference to prestige unparalleled in league history. "Each of our programs is dedicated to achieving the proper balance of excellence in both the classroom and on the playing field. The Atlantic 10 is proud of the accomplishments of our student-athletes but will continue to strive for even greater success."

The success the Atlantic 10 enjoyed last year was highlighted by the league placing five teams in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for the second time in as many years, with Rhode Island advancing to the within 30 seconds of the Final Four. A league record five men's basketball teams were ranked at one time or another last year. Three women's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the tenth time.

Additional highlights include the Massachusetts softball team advancing to the Women's College World Series for the third time since 1992, and the women's rowing team placing fourth in the NCAAs.

Success in each of its championship sports has been the hallmark of the Atlantic 10 Conference and that was reinforced this past year with 20 teams and 17 individuals earning berths to postseason competition. All told, 249 teams have represented the Atlantic 10 Conference in postseason play since the 1976-77 season.

Atlantic 10 student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. The Atlantic 10 sponsors several academic awards programs, including Academic All-Conference teams in each of its championship sports and the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which honored an Atlantic 10 record 1,384 student-athletes with a 3.0 grade point average or better this past year. The league also cites a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and awards a pair of postgraduate scholarships to both male and female student-athletes who express a desire to continue their education.

On June 14, 1994, Linda Bruno was officially introduced as the Atlantic 10's fourth commissioner. As commissioner, Bruno has strengthened the Atlantic 10's membership with the additions of Dayton, Fordham, La Salle, and Virginia Tech, thus assuring the Conference's future. Bruno also negotiated a six-year television deal with ESPN/Creative Sports - the most lucrative and broad-based package in league history - which translates into the greatest amount of exposure ever for the Atlantic 10's athletic programs. She relocated the league office to Philadelphia, placing it in the center of the Atlantic 10's geographic footprint.

Under her leadership the Atlantic 10 has increased its championship schedule to 22 sports with the additions of women's rowing, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and women's lacrosse, beginning this year. Bruno also spearheaded the league's entrance into Division I football with the formation of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference in 1997. In addition, in an effort to recognize the athletic and academic achievements of all student-athletes, Bruno instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.0 gpa or better.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 22 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

69 Years of Excellence

Did you know that, in its 68 official seasons of intercollegiate basketball:

• 19 La Salle players have made it to the National Basketball Association, including first-round draft picks in Tom Gola, Lionel Simmons, Randy Woods, Ken Durrett, Larry Cannon, Michael Brooks and Joe Bryant?

• Three of those were named the NCAA Division I National Player of the Year — Gola in 1954, Brooks in 1980 and Simmons in 1990? Lionel Simmons is the third all-time leading Division I scorer with 3,217 points, and is one of four Explorers to surpass 2,000 points and one of 39 to go over 1,000?

• Thirteen of those players have reached 1,000 in the last 10 years?

• When the 1997-98 season opened, three Explorers were in the NBA — Simmons, Overton, and Tim Legler — all of whom received their degrees from La Salle within four years?

• There are at least 15 others playing professionally in the United States, Europe and Japan?

• Including an NCAA championship in 1954 and a National Invitation Tournament title in 1952, La Salle has made 22 postseason appearances, 11 in the NCAA and 11 in the NIT?

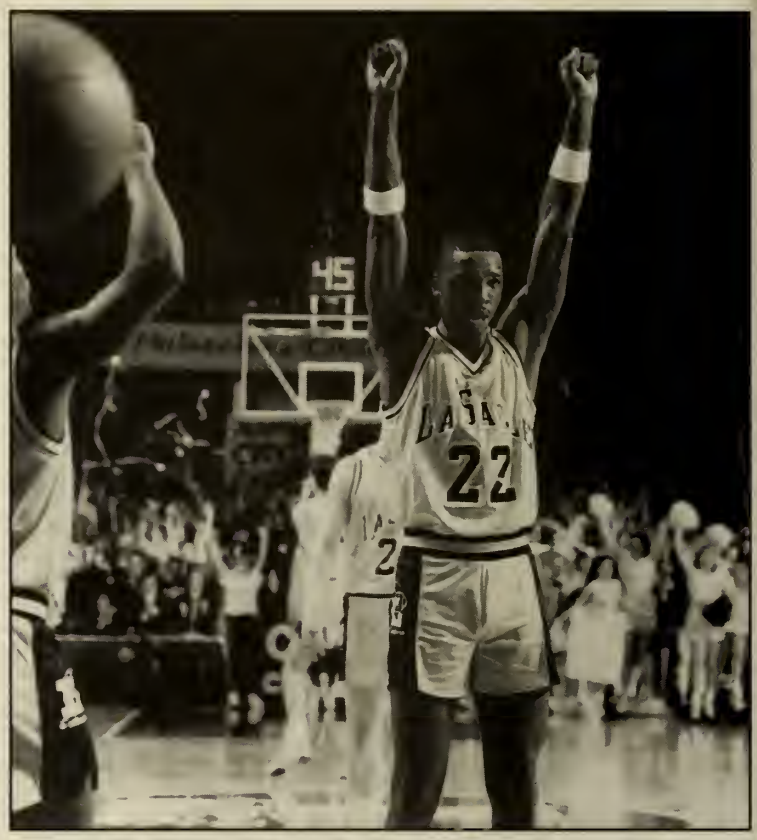
• In 1987, the Explorers advanced to the championship game of the NIT in New York's Madison Square Garden?

• La Salle is one of only 15 teams which have won both postseason tournaments?

• In coach "Speedy" Morris' 12 years, La Salle has won eight in-season tournaments, while playing in such locales as Hawaii (twice), Japan, New Orleans, Texas, California, Arizona and San Juan, Puerto Rico?

• When La Salle won its 1,000th game in 1992, it became the team with the fewest number of seasons (62) to reach that total?

• In coach Morris' 12 years, La Salle has been in six postseason tournaments (four NCAA, two NIT) and, in 1989-90, posted the school's all-time best record, 29-1 in regular season play and 1-1 in the NCAA Tournament? Its 30-2 overall record was the best in the NCAA Division I? Its 22-game winning streak is the school's best ever?



Lionel Simmons is one of three Explorers to rank among the top 25 all-time scorers in NCAA history. Simmons is third with 3,217 points.

• In 1998-99, while playing in the Atlantic 10 Conference, the Explorers are scheduled to appear on national and local TV a total eight times?

• And if you check out all the major conferences, La Salle has played teams from all of them and has at least one victory over a team in every major conference?

• During the past 12 seasons under "Speedy" Morris, the La Salle Explorers men's teams have:

1) graduated 36 of the 36 seniors in the basketball program;

2) had two first-team Academic All-Americas (Tim Legler, '88; Jack Hurd, '92);

3) been to six postseason tourneys; four NCAA, two NIT, including the National Invitation Tournament championship game in 1987;

4) had four players in the NBA (all of whom graduated in four years) — Tim Legler '88, Lionel Simmons '90, Doug Overton '91, and Randy Woods '92;

5) have won 19 championships, eight regular season tourney titles; four first-place league titles, four league postseason championships and three Philadelphia Big 5 titles;

6) have compiled a postseason record of 18 victories and 12 losses;

7) in his 14 seasons at La Salle (including two as women's coach) he has won 245 games, an average of 17.5 wins a season.

TOM GOLA
1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia and San Franisco Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and was the second ranked team in the nation.

A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. La Salle Beats Bradley 92-76 For NCAA Title
Explorers Wrap Up Game With 30-Point 3rd Period; 2 Scoring Marks Broken

By Bob Vetrone
Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 — La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara — all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

The 1952 NIT Champions

Gola, Grekin MVPs as La Salle Tops Dayton To Win NIT Championship

In the early days of post-season basketball tournaments - in the late 1930s through the middle '50s - the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with, and perhaps superior to, the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Iehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Iehle pouring in 20 in the first half.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the margin was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola, Iehle and playmaking captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 half-time lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

Between the NIT and the Olympic Trials, the team, the school and the City of Philadelphia received notice from all around the country. And coach Loeffler had this praise for the team in an article that appeared in the La Salle Collegian:

"This was a new team, a young team, like a child in fact. It first had to walk. As any child would, it fell a few times. It gradually learned to walk, then to run. Against Seton Hall, it found it could jump as well as run."

And Ken could have added: "All the way to a national championship."

LASALLE BASKETBALL

The University

The University

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution that combines the best of all educational worlds. With approximately 3,000 undergraduates and nearly another 3,000 graduate students attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers.

Founded by the Christian Brothers in 1863, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of teaching. Starting as a one building academy in center city Philadelphia, La Salle is now a 110-acre campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section, six miles from center city.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers some 400, and the University offers nearly 50 programs of study. With a student-faculty ration of 14-to-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' approach to education.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving eight to 10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or to diversity one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science, Geology and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Center, a building which underwent a $6.3 million renovation. The facility features a 4,000 seat basketball arena, includes a 1,700-seat Olympic-size swimming pool and diving area, three regulation-sized basketball courts, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

U.S. News & World Report* has cited La Salle as one of the nation's leading regional universities.

La Salle students come from 33 states and 18 countries. The University houses approximately 1,800 resident students in 13 residence halls and three apartment complexes. More than 75 percent of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually.

La Salle undergraduates have been awarded 50 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest number presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top four percent nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

- La Salle was rated the 11th Best Value in the northeastern United States in 1997 by U.S. News & World Report and was a leading regional university in the 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 editions of "America's Best Colleges."
- The New York Times, Money magazine and Barron's all selected La Salle to appear in their guides to the "best buys in college education."
- The influential Long Island newspaper, Newsday, referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in an article titled "Where the Hot Schools Are."
- Standard & Poor's ranked La Salle 10th among the nation's liberal arts college in the number of graduates who are top corporate leaders.
- La Salle was selected to appear in Peterson's Competitive Colleges, a profile of the schools that consistently accept the nation's best students.
- La Salle had the nation's fifth highest graduation rate (94 percent) among approximately 300 Division I schools for student on athletic scholarships who entered in 1987-88.
- Each year, over 90 percent of all students recommended by the Health Profession Committee have been offered entry into medical schools.
- Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors.

Nicholas A. Giordano

University President

Longtime Board of Trustees' member Nicholas A. Giordano was elected Interim President July 1, becoming the second consecutive graduate to lead La Salle University.

Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees at La Salle, Giordano is serving as president until Brother Michael McGinniss, who is spearheading a fundraising drive at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tennessee, becomes full-time president at La Salle July 1, 1999.

"We're fortunate that Nicholas Giordano has agreed to serve as La Salle's interim president," said John Shea, Chairman of the University's Board of Trustees. "First as a student, then as a trustee, Nick has come to know what this school represents, in terms of providing a high quality education to our students. Nick's background as a financial leader, his commitment to various charities and boards, and his deep fondness for his alma matter, make him an ideal choice to lead the school at this time."

Giordano, a 1965 graduate of La Salle, has been a board member since 1981.

"For the past 37 years I have been associated with La Salle as a student, alumnus and trustee of the board," said Giordano. "My affection for this great university has grown stronger over the years, and my respect ofr its faculty, administration and students has never been deeper. The opportunity to serve as La Salle's interim president, while humbling, is also a great honor."

Giordano worked for Price Waterhouse & Co. after he graduated from La Salle. He worked at various brokerage houses in Philadelphia prior to becoming controller of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange in 1971. He became Vice President of Operations in 1971, Senior Vice President in 1975, Executive Vice President in 1976 and President in 1981 until he resigned in 1997.

During Giordano's tenure as CEO, the equity of the exchange's membership nearly tripled, significant upgrading of its technology and trading systems took place and the Exchange's international presence was expanded. Giordano testified before Congress and the SEC on important legislation affecting the trading of securities, including his support for the Unlisted Trading Privilege Bill, which allowed the Philadelphia Stock Exchange to trade NYSE new listings almost immediately, versus the previous waiting period of up to 60 days.

Giordano is also Chairman of the Board of Mount Saint Joseph Academy and has been in leadership positions with such charitable organizations as the National Adoption Center, United Way, and Business Leaders Organized for Catholic Schools. He is a board member for Independence Blue Cross, the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, and the Police Athletic League of Philadelphia.

He has served on the boards of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the Philadelphia Family of YMCA's, the National Italian American Foundation, and the World Affairs Council.

Giordano has been honored for his work at La Salle with the school's 1996 Leadership Award and received the Fournier Award for Distinguished Service from Mount Saint Joseph Academy. In addition, he received Villanova University's Beta Gamma Award for Achievement in 1990 and the National Italian American Foundation's Achievement Award in 1988.

He and his wife, Joanne, have three children, all born on the same day.

Dr. Thomas Brennan

Athletics Director

A new era in La Salle Athletics began when Dr. Thomas Brennan became the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997.

He guides the school's 23-sport Division 1 athletic program as the university enters its fourth season in the Atlantic 10, begins football's second season after a 56-year hiatus and will initiate full-time, home court play at the Gola Arena in the renovated Hayman Center, a project that increased seating capacity from 1,000 to 4,000.

"La Salle has proven successful in the Atlantic 10, and I am excited to lead the department," Brennan said. "You must have integrity in your program and you must have a program which emphasizes the educational mission of athletics. "You must also strive for excellence in the athletic arena. I know that these are all important at La Salle and that is what attracted me."

Since coming to La Salle, Brennan has reorganized many areas within the Athletic Department, has formed an Explorer Club, a fundraising group of staff, alumni and friends, and has helped the school gain entrance into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Football League effective with the 1999 season.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-97, moving the school form the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). During his administration, graduation rates for student-athletes double and participation by women in intercollegiate athletics nearly doubled as the university was recognized for Title IX compliance efforts by the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education.

In addition, annual athletic contributions more than doubled and $6 million was raised for a new field house and administrative complex.

Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Baltimore from 1986-90. During that time, he successfully moved Loyola from the Northeast Conference into the MAAC. The Greyhounds became national contenders in men's and women's lacrosse and men's soccer. The men's and women's basketball programs both experienced significant improvements. Today, Loyola is considered a top regional Athletics Program. While at Loyola, Brennan was a member of the State Board of Directors for the Maryland Special Olympics.

From 1980-86, Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director. At his departure, he oversaw fundraising, media relations, sponsorship, marketing, sales and athletic alumni efforts. Prior to that, he oversaw the NCAA Compliance and the Academic Support areas of the department. Brennan also earned a faculty position in the schoolís Graduate Program in Athletic.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic department, serving as a liaison with the school's central administration, deans, department heads and coaches. Syracuse was recognized by the NCAA as having one of the top 10 student-athlete graduation rates in the country.

Brennan is a 1973 graduate of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, NY and went on to earn Masterís and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie (10), Tim (8) and Kate (4).

Tom Brennan is entering his third year as Director of Athletics.
